

During an interactive session with the media
Elia Nuqul Foundation (ENF) presented its accomplishments in the presence of stakeholders

Amman - September 2012

In line with its vision of empowering youth, Elia Nuqul Foundation (ENF) recently presented its accomplishments during the past 4 years in the presence of stakeholders represented by board members, ENF employees and media representatives. The media roundtable was held at Nuqul Group's Head Office on the 17th of September 2012.

The session focused on Elia Nuqul Foundation's mission, vision, areas of interventions, goals along with its future plans. After presenting testimonials from scholars, the event offered an interactive platform during which scholars engaged with local media representatives, social media experts and board members.

On this occasion, Mr. Ghassan Nuqul, Elia Nuqul Foundation's Vice Chairperson and Executive Committee Member said: "I would like to thank you all for attending this media roundtable. The achievement that we value is mirrored in the testimonials that reflect tangible impact and development in the life of our scholars".

Ms. Randi Abdin, Director of Elia Nuqul Foundation, commented: "We are glad to witness the growth of our scholars and we will continue with our mission to enhance their skills with the latest tools that will most definitely differentiate them to become effective members contributing positively to their community while making an impact. Today's session reflected the importance we place on our partnership with the media as an advocate for sustainable development of our community and youth."
